VOL. XXI.—NO. 6363 PORTLAND, OREGON: SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1881. PRICE—TEN CENTS.

THE PRESIDENT.

LONG BRANCH AIR SLOWLY BRINGING RESTORATION.

Appetite Returning—The President Holds (?) Strength Gained from day to day—He Wants to See his Cabinet, etc.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.

ELBERON, Sept. 9—[illegible] A. M.—[illegible] of the president at 8 A. M. is temperature [illegible], pulse [illegible], respiration [illegible]. [illegible] He was [illegible] and would [illegible] restful during the night [illegible] restless [illegible] slept sufficiently. [illegible] been expended the last [illegible] hours, and the [illegible] the past 24 hours gave evidence of favorable progress.

BLISS AND HAMILTON.

12 P. M.—At this hour the president is resting quietly and apparently sleeping. His condition is as favorable as yesterday, and no unfavorable symptoms have developed. The president expressed a desire this morning to see any members of the cabinet who desired to call upon him. Pulse [illegible], temperature 98.4, respiration 17.

Unofficial Bulletin.

General Swaim says that the president passed a good night and that his general condition is as good as could be expected. He ate some [illegible] for breakfast and relished it. [illegible] have been opened in the cottage, rendering it perfectly comfortable.

Attorney General MacVeagh feels encouraged and hopeful for continued improvement.

Dr. Hamilton's Views.

A reporter interviewed Dr. Hamilton, who said that he soberly stated that the president has made some progress to-day, but he is not out of danger, and it would be well for the public to postpone [illegible] rejoicing and thanksgiving for a time. The doctors and attendants are human beings as well as professional men. Their heart-strings have been kept at a great tension for a long time. The change for the better has caused a rebound in their hopes, which finds expression in somewhat extravagant terms. Moreover, they were talking for the most part to persons who have closely followed the varying features of the disease in their manifest fluctuations, and who were expected to place expressions of [illegible] hope in the scales against events which have preceded them and gather the truth from the balance. The result is cheering.

Gen. Swaim's Views.

LONG BRANCH, Sept. 9.—Gen. Swaim said: "Everything looks better. It would probably be difficult to point to anything particular as being greatly improved, but the general character of the wound and gland and general condition of the president are more satisfactory than heretofore, and everything looks favorable. Everything is doing as nicely as could be expected.

Views of MacVeagh.

The immediate attendants upon the president give more decided opinions that the improvement is likely to be permanent, than persons not so intimately connected with the case. Assurance from those having access to the president's room that the president is much better than before leaving Washington, is very generally accepted and gratifying. The morning, although cloudy and hazy, is cool and refreshing. A gentle breeze is blowing from the sea. MacVeagh said that he considered the outlook of the president's case very encouraging, and although there was every reason to believe that the favorable condition would continue he decided to wait a week or ten days before entertaining a faith that he is convalescent. At present everything looks favorable, and of course we hope what has been gained will be maintained and added to, but the difficulty is that the president's blood is in an unhealthy condition, and until he recuperates sufficiently to overcome any bad effects of blood poisoning it is not safe to be too sanguine. The lungs are most prominent in danger at the present time, inasmuch as the patient is experiencing some trouble with his throat. Possibly the lungs may be reached by impurities originating from the parotid gland. There is no indication yet that they have been affected. We know his heart is all right, and up to this time there are no indications which tend to show that the lungs are not in a healthy condition.

"On the whole you feel more encouraged than before you left Washington, do you not?"

"Oh yes, there is no doubt that the president is much better."

General Items.

Senators Logan and Chaffee are still here and called at Elberon early this morning to ascertain the president's condition.

Some comment having been made about the movements of the ball in the president's body, Dr. Bliss said to-day that he anticipated no trouble from the ball or any unfavorable symptoms in connection with it.

Wants to see the Cabinet.

The favorable condition of the president continues this afternoon. MacVeagh was informed through an attending physician that the president expressed a desire to see any cabinet officer who might call. The members expect to visit the president during the day. They will probably enter the chamber separately. Attorney-General MacVeagh has already seen him.

A Very Favorable Report.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—Secretary Kirkwood returned from Long Branch to-day and says the president is doing splendidly. He has gained more in the last 24 hours than any two weeks in Washington. At first the excessive heat told on him fearfully. Residents never saw it hotter and the physicians were very anxious. Yesterday's cool breeze had an almost instant effect, and the doctors said if the cool weather continues and if no complications ensue he will be out of danger in ten days. The weather prospects fine and the surgeons confident of the future. The president relishes solid food. Had the hot weather lasted a few days more it would have killed the president. The surgeons deny that the lungs are affected by blood poison. The lungs are sound and healthy. The secretary says everybody is full of hope and the president is delighted and sure of recovery. The president there maintains the ground he makes, while here he lost it daily.

Evening Bulletin.

ELBERON, Sept. 9—6:10 P. M.—At the examination of the president at 12 M. to-day, the temperature was 98, pulse 100, respiration 17. At the evening dressing at 5:30 P. M., the temperature was 98.8, pulse 100, respiration 18. It is believed, without referring to the record, that this is the first day since the development of the traumatic fever, that the temperature, pulse and respiration have been so nearly normal and uniform throughout the entire day.

No Danger from the Lungs.

To-day is considered by attending surgeons and the president's attendants as one of the best days he has had since he was shot. During the morning the surgeon while examining the president, pressed his finger on the spot on the body supposed to be directly over the ball. The patient did not experience any discomfort from a slight pressure. It is not thought the ball in its present location will cause inconvenience to the president. He is now able to raise his right leg, which is near the supposed position of the ball, as easily as he does the left. Inquiry elicited the statement that there was found to be a noticeable flatness or indications of irregularity of one lung some weeks ago, but the cause of it was then and is now attributed to other causes, not blood. No great anxiety exists at present regarding the probability that the lungs may eventually become affected. Corbin says the president passed an exceedingly favorable day and he ate a very good dinner. Mrs. Garfield said to the colonel that she felt sure the president was better to-day. The favorable symptoms are expected to continue from two to four weeks before the president can be pronounced convalescent.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Guiteau's Birthday—He considers the Insanity Plea.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—The assassin Guiteau passed his 40th birthday in jail yesterday. He called the attention of the warden and guards to the fact and suggested that persons sometimes received presents on such occasions. No response was given him, however. It was suggested by some that the best present would be a spider in his dumpling. Guiteau is in remarkably good health, slightly heavier than when committed and in better spirits than a few days ago. He has by some means learned that the president was taken to Long Branch. When he sees or hears anything that indicates that the president is getting better, he states that he is praying for his recovery, but when the reverse is heard he intimates that the inspiration he had to kill the president is right, and that if the president dies it will be because it was desired by providence. Recently he spent much time in studying his case, and evidently from his questions he will try the insanity plea. He is asking what will be the effect of a verdict in case he should be declared not guilty by reason of insanity; whether, on such verdict, he would be sent to the insane asylum for an indefinite period or until officers should pronounce him sane, or whether a verdict could not be as above with the addition of the words "was [illegible] time of the commission of the crime," and in the event of such a verdict, whether or not he be entitled to his freedom. Every day freedom of the lower part of the corridor in which his cell fronts is given him for exercise, and yesterday morning for half an hour he gave the guards evidence that he was in good condition for walking, wearing a woolen [illegible] and black pants, the latter rolled above his knees, displaying legs with muscles so large as to look unnatural. He rapidly trotted up and down the floor. Although rather short in the legs he stepped [illegible] at a stride, and excited the wonder of some of those who had never seen him exercise.

Howgate's Villainies.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—It appears that [illegible] only stole from the government [illegible] obtained money from it [illegible] account [illegible] Miller, a clerk in the office of the signal [illegible] into the hands of Howgate [illegible] [illegible] $180 [illegible] of Howgate's property [illegible]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—[illegible] W. W[illegible] appointed internal revenue [illegible] district of California.

Grant to the Soldiers.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Sept. 9.—General Grant spoke at the soldiers' reunion to-day, and was received with great enthusiasm. He approved of soldiers' reunions, but said that he was sure that there was not and could not be any animosity towards the south in the hearts of northern soldiers.

Collision in San Francisco Bay.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—[illegible] of the Central Pacific Railroad [illegible] steamer Transit, [illegible] ship St. Joseph [illegible] Philadelphia [illegible] twenty feet [illegible] docked [illegible] damage [illegible] $500. The Transit was slightly damaged.

Arming for Indian Service.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—A dispatch from Tucson, Arizona, says that to-day it telegraphed to [illegible] that the secretary of war authorizes the sale of arms and ammunition, but that there are but few [illegible] posts. He wants to know the number the governor desires to purchase, as only to organized companies can arms be drawn without purchase. The governor [illegible] telegraphed [illegible] arms that can be had [illegible]

The San Francisco Election.

Complete returns of the city election show that the democrats have elected their candidates for mayor and supervisors in the third and sixth wards. With these exceptions the republicans have made a clean sweep. Sedgwick for sheriff has the biggest majority, three thousand three hundred and [illegible]. Blake for mayor has two thousand and ninety-two and thence the majorities range down to a few hundreds. It is possible that the official count will change the figures in detail but it is not likely to affect the result.

Murder at Stockton.

STOCKTON, Sept. 9.—This evening a young man named Wm. Miller, a native of Leipsic, Saxony, was stabbed and instantly killed by a young man named Wm. Schneider. Both are cigar makers. There had been bad blood between the young men for a long time and to-night Schneider purchased a [illegible] knife, subsequently went into the Albany saloon, where he found Miller and entered into conversation with him. Miller made a demonstration as if to strike Schneider with his fist, when the latter drew the knife and cut Miller under the chin and with another blow plunged the blade into his left nipple. Miller died almost instantly. Schneider was placed in custody. He made no resistance. The father of Schneider says that his son is an opium fiend.

The Placerville Fair.

PLACERVILLE, Sept. 9.—The attendance at the fair continues undiminished. The first race to-day was a three-quarter mile dash, which was won by Rondo in 1:20½. The second was a saddle race, catch weights, for which there were five starters. The distance was three-eighths of a mile, won by Lottie. Strawberry 2d. Time [illegible]. In the race for all trotting race, mile heats, three best in five, Tom P. Winston was the winner, Harry Ruvains 2d. Time 2:42½, 2:35, 2:33½, 2:39.

The Petaluma Races.

PETALUMA, Sept. 9.—To-day was a gala day in Petaluma. The largest crowd that ever gathered in the city has thronged our streets since an early hour this morning. The feature of the forenoon was a Masonic parade ceremonies of laying the corner stone of the Masonic temple. In the afternoon the grand stand was packed far beyond its capacity, and the field was thronged with vehicles filled with people to witness the races, the first of which was a three in five trot for Marin county for inside stake and $150 added by the association, between Millerie Marin, [illegible] wagon, Taylor's Jim, Valencia's Dan and Pacheco's Brown Prince. In the first heat Marin took the lead to the quarter, keeping it to the end; time 2:58. In the second heat Dan went to the front, keeping that position to the close. Prince and Jim were distanced. Time 2:47. The third heat was taken by Dan, time 2:50½. Fourth heat was taken by Marin by two lengths; time 2:48. Fifth and last taken by Marin with ease, time 2:54½.

The next race was pacing for $250, free to state, between Washington and Johnny Weigh. Washington won the pole and race in three straight heats; time 2:29, 2:31, 2:33¼.

At Chico.

CHICO, Sept. 9.—To-day was observed as a general holiday, the banks all being closed. The ladies' tournament was finished this forenoon, and prizes awarded. To-morrow there will be another exhibition of horsemanship by misses. In the races to-day the mile dash for the Burk & Mansfield purse for three-year-olds, Jim Douglas and Duke of Norfolk were named. Douglass won, time 1:43½.

The second race, mile and repeat, for the Union hotel purse, $200 added, Jim Douglass and [illegible] put in an appearance. Douglass took the first heat; time 1:44. The second heat was won under pull by Douglass; time 1:45.

In the half-mile race there were two dead heats between Langford and Mollie Waters. They divided the money.

ARIZONA.

The Present Method of Indian Warfare.

SAN CARLOS, via Tucson, Sept. 3.—This morning Rev. Mr. Wingar, accompanied by his wife and four children, Mrs. Chandler, matron, and Mr. and Mrs. Hollister arrived here. Mr. Wingar is here to place his family in safe quarters, after which he will return to the reservation. Mr. Hollister, storekeeper, and his wife, who was a teacher in the school, have resigned and will not return. Citizens sought out Mr. Wingar to ascertain the condition of affairs at the agency. Mr. Wingar reports things in a state of excitement, and there are many conflicting rumors current. No danger is apprehended at the agency. It is not known how many Indians are hostile, but it is estimated by the best judges that there are about 400. A portion of these are now at Cibicu. There are others disaffected who go out on depredations to plunder, steal stock and murder those they meet and next day are on the reservations like good Indians drawing rations. That is the kind of warfare he thinks will be carried on. Those who are known by their participation in the Cibicu affair will undoubtedly remain outside of the reservation on the warpath. Those not known will use the reservation as a safe retreat after committing depredations outside. It is not known who the leader or instigator of the Cibicu affair is. Some of Pedro's band are said to have been in it, but he was not and it is not known that he had anything to do with it. He disputes the Apache account of the outbreak and thinks the purpose of the feast was to incite the Indians to go on the warpath.

The following information is obtained from military headquarters here. General Willcox at Willcox station, A. T., telegraphs as follows under date of Sept. 8: "No new reports of the situation except that Geronimo's band, who have been at the subagency on the Gila for years are reported out. Haskell and Deforris attend a council of Indians at the subagency to-day. Chaffee has a promise of 25 San Carlos and Tontes. Col. Wilkins has arrived with two companies; total strength, 137 men. Two companies will guard railroad trains to and from Deming. Carr writes on the 4th that hostiles are reported to be all ensconced in rough country northeast of Phipps' place, and will stay there and fight it out, but Carr does not believe it. He says he will of course resume the offensive if he hears of any hostiles where he can strike. My orders are to resume the offensive on or before the reopening of telegraph communication. Stanton with his company starts back this morning to Apache, repairing lines as he goes."

Indians Watching the Country.

PHOENIX, Sept. 9.—McIntosh's woman, a Tonto squaw, states that Indians are all strong and have divided into three parties, one watching the country between Apache and the reservation, one moving down to Tonto creek, and the third coming via Sierra Anchas through Pleasant valley. McIntosh is a reliable half-breed, and has been a good guide and scout. A large meeting was held here last night. A militia company is forming to protect settlers in Tonto if needed. Strong resolutions against the Indian policy of the government were passed, [illegible] the matter be turned over to the military and the citizens.

Democrats get the Tax Collector.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—The count of the registrar of elections to-day shows that [illegible], democrat, has been elected tax collector by a majority of [illegible]. Otherwise the result as heretofore stated remains unchanged.

Stage Robbery.

TOMBSTONE, Sept. 9.—The Bisbee stage was robbed this morning between 12 and 1 o'clock between [illegible] and Charleston by three men. The robbers got $2500 from the Wells Fargo treasure box. [illegible] agent notified the sheriff, who sent out parties to track the robbers.

[illegible] Twenty houses are said to have been brought into Cass City in the last [illegible] days. The people are calling for aid.

List of Towns Destroyed.

DETROIT, Sept. 9.—The press says: [illegible] A Port Austin dispatch says the loss of life in the tip of the burned peninsula by Monday's and Tuesday's fires is estimated at from 250 to 300. The following villages are burned: Bad Axe, Verona, Forest Bay, Richmondville, Charleston, Anderson, Deckerville, Harrisonville and Sandusky. The following are partly burned: Port Hope and Minden. The country has suffered vastly more than the villages. Saginaw, Tuscola and Lapeer counties are on fire back from the lake and are greatly damaged but not nearly so much as the shore counties. Hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of property is destroyed. It is hoped that the rain has now stopped the fires. Everything is now necessary to help the destitute [illegible] clothing, provisions, seed grain, etc. Carleton, Mayor or Senator O. D. Conger, of Port Huron will receive supplies.

The Awful Fire.

DETROIT, Sept. 9.—In Delaware township, all the country south of Forestville is in the lake seven miles back, everything is swept clean. These new settlers owed for their farms and lose everything. Men and cattle fled to the lake where there is the utmost confusion. A man who lost all was blind and crazy. The fire surprised every one in that region by its sudden descent, and only for the lake there would have been a holocaust. One man lay in a mud puddle and rolled over and over all night. A large force has gone to bury the dead animals. Many have been rendered blind and they have to be led. Many people are hungry and ill clad and sick. More help must come soon. George Ferguson of White Rock, says since Monday he has seen 100 burned bodies on the road. Wagon loads of coffins were a common sight. Latest reports say back townships are burned over with large loss of life. Fires were extinguished by rains in the section between Sand Beach and [illegible].

The Robber Hunt in Missouri.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 9.—Gov. Crittenden arrived to-night, and has been in conference with the local authorities in regard to the best methods of capturing the robbers. In an interview he confesses that he was powerless under the law to offer any large reward, and says that he has simply come to the scene of action to impress upon the local authorities the importance of doing their duty and sparing no efforts to capture the robbers. County marshals have several posses out in various parts of the country, and by the advice of the governor will start others to-night.

Captured.

INDEPENDENCE, Mo., Sept. 9.—Great excitement prevails on account of the arrest of Creed Chapman and John Bugler, two of the gang who robbed the express train last night. They were arrested near the scene of the robbery four miles from here by Sheriff Carson and a posse of Saline county. A brother of Chapman gave them away to the officers as well as several others, whose arrests will soon follow. The parties when caught were heavily armed with rifles and navy revolvers. They were identified beyond doubt by the material used in patching rifle bullets found on their persons, it being exactly the same as a piece of goods left at the scene of the outrage, and there is no doubt but the remainder of the gang except the leader, reside in the neighborhood. The leader was undoubtedly the notorious Jesse James. The entire country is aroused and under arms and this and adjacent counties are being scoured in search of the [illegible]. No news has come from any of the pursuing parties except Sheriff Carson since early morning. It is believed that the hunt will result in the capture of the entire gang. Express messenger Fox was not fatally hurt as at first supposed, but his injuries are serious. Parties who were on the train state that money and valuables taken from the passengers will amount to at least $15,000 and the amount taken from the express safe is fully as large, though the express company will not give the exact figures and [illegible] to make the loss appear much smaller than it really was. Governor Crittenden has sent telegrams to all parts of the state ordering county officers to organize for immediate pursuit. Sam Chapman and other of the gang has just been brought in and other arrests are looked for to-night.

Personnel of the Desperadoes.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 9.—A detective of the express company, who has been on the trail of the express robbers a long time, left here for the west this morning. He says that correspondents in Jackson county gave the company warning ten days ago that there was going to be another robbery attempted, but neither the exact time nor the place could be ascertained and therefore steps or measures could not be taken to prevent it. This detective believes the programme of the leaders of the gang contemplates still another robbery before they leave for their hiding places in the southwest. He also believes Frank James and some two or three other leaders were concerned in the robbery. The remainder of the gang, he says, are made up of vicious men and criminals who reside in the neighborhood, selected for their [illegible] and who are ever ready to [illegible] any desperate undertaking [illegible] leaders.

Railroad Smashup.

[illegible], Ky., Sept. 9.—The entire train of two coaches, a baggage car and engine on the [illegible] railroad, which left [illegible]sville at 5 P. M., is in a creek. It struck a trestle about 30 feet from the west end of the bridge, knocked it down [illegible] about 30 feet from the track to the bed of the creek. The train is a total wreck. The list of killed is as follows: A stranger from California, a Mr. Perry, [illegible] Noel, Capt. Wm. Madlow, Mr. James and Charles Buchanan. There are supposed to be two or three others dead under the wreck. Among the seriously injured are Alexander Alfred, the fireman of the engine, a Mr. Robinson and others. But few escaped without injury. Conductor Perry, Fireman [illegible] and Baggagemaster [illegible] but not seriously.

Desperadoes Arrested.

DENVER, Sept. 9.—The police last night arrested five women and three men belonging to a [illegible] band of robbers. Detectives are on track of other members, who are operating in other states. This band is mostly from Missouri and Kansas, where they are said to have blown open over fifty safes within two years. Over $2000 worth of [illegible] was among the eight arrested.

HOW JUSTICES AND CONSTABLES IN PORTLAND THRIVE.

And how the Taxpayers have to Stand the Expense—Robbery of the County Treasury Under the forms of Law.

[illegible] the beginning of the fiscal year. [illegible] the justices in the city who have been least expensive to the county are Messrs. Bybee and Bockwalter. Bybee is the most moderate in his charges and [illegible] fewer [illegible]. The justices and constables in South Portland and Western precincts have generally been found to have been the least successful in keeping down the aggregate of costs in proportion to the number of cases disposed of, though in some of those brought in North Portland the various proceedings and the number of witnesses have contributed to make that court quite a burden on the tax payers of the county. Justice Petrain, too, has been very unsuccessful in preventing the bringing of cases before him which appear to have had no good foundation, as it is found that a very large proportion of them have neither resulted in conviction nor in the accused being held to answer. For instance during the month of August 22 state cases were begun before him of which only five resulted in the accused being convicted or held to answer, 17 of them being disposed of by dismissal or judgment of not guilty, and one in which the party accused was not arrested, though the constable presents a bill for serving the warrant and for attending court. This is an unusually large proportion of cases to fail in the proofs, and as the justice has full authority to examine the complaining witness before the warrant is issued it would seem that he should not be so often misled as to what proof might be adduced. Had the cases in which it was found that the accused was not guilty nor probably guilty, been submitted to a jury or to any other authority than that which issued the warrants of arrest, the result might have been more readily anticipated [illegible]. In North Portland precinct also in July eight persons were arrested and tried for using obscene language in the presence of ladies, their names being Ed. Pallon, Jack Dodrich, J. Cook, Mrs. Dougherty, Catherine [illegible], Margaret [illegible] and Louise Parker. What the exact [illegible] of these cases were, the transcripts do not show, though such transcripts are required to [illegible]. Justice Petrain appears generally to have neglected to enter the names of the prosecuting witness, but we are informed that some of the parties are well known in police circles and would hardly be likely to be shocked by any language which could be framed with the human tongue. Besides it is not at all settled that such offenses, although very gross, are punishable as misdemeanors under the state law. Seven of these parties were convicted, and the other went out of court on demurrer, but Jack Burke, through his attorney, demanded a trial by jury, put the county to $60 in cost and secured a verdict of not guilty. In the same court in July, at a cost to the county of $26.90, S. Wyman was put under a bond of $500 to keep the peace. [illegible] at a cost to the county of $20.80 was convicted of larceny and paid a fine of $5, so that the county only lost $14 [illegible] by his case. John Jones was convicted of larceny from a dwelling and sent to jail for 12 days, the costs of doing this was only $17.90, which is by no means exorbitant as some courts might look at a judgment of the kind as a difficult matter under our statute. There were many other cases which were very costly to the county, the justice, however [illegible] charge nothing more than his legal fees [illegible] number of witnesses being in [illegible] large.

These are presided over by S. S. White in South Portland precinct, F. M. Lichtenthaler being [illegible] judgments of conviction in more cases, in proportion to the number of arrests made, than were obtained before Justice Petrain, and has generally succeeded in involving the county in [illegible]. For example, the records show that in this court in January it cost the county [illegible] to try James Howard for assault and battery, [illegible] [illegible]

In August the witness fees in state cases in the several justices courts were as follows:

North Portland	[illegible]
South Portland	[illegible]
Madison	[illegible]
Union	[illegible]
Marquam	[illegible]
Western	[illegible]

Boat Racing at Toronto.

TORONTO, Sept. 9.—The weather is fine for races to-day. First heat single scull race, Smith, Ten Eyck, Mackay, Plaisted, Hosmer, and Ross started. Ross won, Ten Eyck 2d. Second heat Trickett, Weisgerber, [illegible], Courtney, Conley, Riley and M[illegible] started. Conley won, Courtney 2d, Trickett 3d. Trickett entered a protest, claiming that Conley turned the wrong buoy. The protest was disallowed, therefore Trickett will not have a place in the final heat. Lee won the third heat. The fours race was won by the Toronto crew. Halifax crew 2d.

The Harpers also publish Anthony Trollope's latest novel, "Ayala's Angel," in their Franklin Square Library. Mr. Trollope [illegible] a letter written by the daughter Gertrude, and before depositing it in the waste basket she [illegible] Gertrude is able to find the [illegible] an envelope among her father's papers. The plot of the story is an amusing and instructive one, and, with the [illegible] carefully written.

[illegible] of the Franklin Square [illegible] To-day in America: Studies of the Old and the New, by Joseph Hatton. We have also Madame de Remusat's Letters, and "An Ocean Free Lance." For sale by A. L. Bancroft & Co., San Francisco.

"The Comedy of Errors" and "Cymbeline," from the twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth volumes of Rolfe's edition of Shakespeare. Each play is remarkable for careful editing and a scholarly knowledge of vexed points in Shakespeare, etc. Mr. Rolfe tries to steer between the battling rocks of Shakespeare's commentators, and make his little volumes something more than dogmatic text-books for school use. In these two he has included portions of an unpublished paper by the late Cowden Clarke, through the courtesy of his widow, who is well known for her works on Shakespeare. The tragedy of "Cymbeline" presents critical difficulties second to none other of the great master's compositions, but they have been fairly met in the present edition, and the aim Mr. Rolfe has of making a "popular variorum edition for the general reader and the student," has been successfully attained. The 60 pages of notes are crowded with quotations and illustrative readings from the best Shakespearean scholars, such as Hudson, Halliwell, Schmidt, Abbott, Knight, Furness and many others. "Cymbeline" will be read and loved as long as language itself endures. It glows with dramatic fervor, and is luminous with the most delicate touches and characteristic studies of human nature. New York, Harper & Brothers. For sale by A. L. Bancroft & Co., San Francisco.

"A Gentleman of Leisure" is a short novel by Edgar Fawcett. Boston, Houghton, Mifflin & Co. It is written in the style of Henry James, Jr., but with strong distinctive characteristics of its own. It touches on the superficial aspects of New York society, and is principally concerned with the aping of English customs on the part of rich young New Yorkers and the sinfulness of gambling in stocks on the part of Wall street workers. A very fair and somewhat glowing account is given of New York clubs and balls. Under fictitious names, mostly Dutch in their make-up, many well known persons, male and female, are depicted not untruthfully. Sold by J. K. Gill & Co., Portland.

"A Short History of Art," by Julia B. de Forest, published by Dodd, Mead & Co., New York, is one of the most useful handbooks of the history of art ever published. It is intended only as a brief outline, and as such will serve excellently as an introduction to standard works on the subject. Yet it runs over the entire development and history of sculpture, painting and architecture, beginning with primitive art and ending with art in the nineteenth century. Sold by A. L. Bancroft & Co., San Francisco.

Maj. Theodore J. Eckerson, well known here, has published a pretty volume of verse, entitled, "When My Ship Comes In, and Other Rhymes of Camp and Hearth." The title very well describes the contents. Here are dainty bits of domestic heart experiences and stirring strains from olden battle-fields, "Coming Over the Bar" among the former and "The Old Superintendent" among the latter are typical of the worth of the poems. "Coming Over the Bar" is a song of the Columbia river, written in 1867. The volume is printed at the Riverside Press, Cambridge.

This Company is among the oldest and strongest companies in the world. Its organization dates back to 1824. Of the ninety-five companies doing business on this coast, and the 109 reporting to the New York insurance department, in point of paid up capital it ranks No. 2, while in point of assets it ranks No. 6. Adding its subscribed capital, subject to call, amounting to over $20,000,000, which, under the stringent laws of Great Britain governing unpaid capital, as fully illustrated in the failure of the Glasgow Bank, is available to the last dollar for its liabilities, it stands at the head of all the companies doing business in America: making in all, in actual resources, $33,767,860.68, and every policy issued pledges on its face, and in its contract binds its actual fire assets, every dollar of its authorized and subscribed capital of $30,000,000 to the payment of its fire losses.

SATURDAY MORNING, SEPT. 10, 1881.

... When he grew to be a man he naturally floated into the spoils system of politics for relief and support. He gravitated that way as to the natural refuge of so many of his class for indolence, loaferism and general worthlessness. Without qualification for anything, and too lazy to enter any useful employment, he thought of official place as just the thing, and, destitute of moral training as he was, he looked upon the prostitution of the civil service of the country as the just and natural administration of it. Seeing men like Mr. Conkling and the whole legion of spoils-grabbers making bitter war upon the president because they could not control appointments, he conceived that he also was injured, and so undertook to murder the president and adjust matters for all the parties in interest, including himself. The idle lazy and worthless boy, who is permitted to grow up without habits of industry and useful employment is carried by the principle of natural selection into the company of professional office-seekers, and becomes a natural follower of the spoils system. Right here is a lesson which should show every father his duty. Bring the boys up to work at something at which they may make an honorable living, and get them founded in industrious habits. Then they will not become loafers, bummers, spoils-hunters, followers of robber politicians, and villainous Guiteaus. While therefore men pray for the recovery of the president let them look to their duty to their sons. Bring the boys up to work; instruct them in sound principles, and check the future supply of loafers, dead-beats and assassins. Omit not the prayer when it is felt to be a duty, but as faith without works is dead, watch, therefore, and work too, as well as pray.

JOURNALISM.

Besides giving all the news, general and local, and an amount of miscellaneous and well-selected good reading which no other paper equals THE OREGONIAN publishes each week three times as much matter on agriculture, live stock, the resources of the country and its industrial development and all subjects pertaining thereto, as any special agricultural paper in the northwest. As a commercial journal it beats commercial papers out of their own field and renders their publication superfluous; and upon religious, educational, social and literary topics it regularly publishes more matter than any paper or papers devoted exclusively thereto, within the range of its circulation. The work of each week, grouped appropriately in THE WEEKLY OREGONIAN, makes a weekly newspaper for the people of Oregon and Washington of unapproachable extent, variety and excellence. Eastern weekly papers are cheaper; but no paper published so far away is or can be adapted to the wants of this people. A newspaper, besides giving the news of the world, should be a mirror in which the life of the people among whom it is published is steadily reflected. Of course we have not yet brought THE OREGONIAN up to the standard of completeness. But we are pushing on steadily in that direction; and, with the growth of the country and consequent increase of business, we shall be able in a short time to make it fill every requirement. Increase of circulation, both of daily and weekly editions, was never so rapid as it has been this year. The policy so long pursued of using the increased receipts of its business in improving the paper, adding to its news and enlarging the whole scope of its operations, is steadily continued. During the month of August its expenditure for news exceeded $2000, and the whole cost of publication ran close to $9000. Next year we shall spend on the paper regularly more than $10,000 a month, as we expect increased receipts to justify such expenditure. It is the purpose of the management of THE OREGONIAN to make the paper cover the whole field of journalism. To this end it is working, and towards it it is making as rapid progress as the growth of the country will allow. The labor is great; no other business is so exacting; the demands it makes are incessant and require the most unremitting attention; but as these are necessary conditions of success in the newspaper business more than in any other whatever, they must be accepted without complaint and turned to the advantage which only such conditions can bring.

THE COST OF NEGLECT.

The water in the rivers between Portland and the ocean is at about the usual September stage, but owing to the absence of any means whatever of dredging the bars, the depth at the three or four shoal places is less than in former seasons. Steamers drawing 17 or even 17½ feet come up by ploughing through a few inches of mud at certain points, but ships have not the force to go through, nor, in many instances, the iron bottoms to stand the rub. It is not safe to load a vessel which must pass down the river more than 16 feet. The result is that grain ships can only be partly loaded here, and must take a large proportion of their cargoes down the river. The American ship Palmyra went down Thursday with 900 tons of a total wheat cargo of 2200. The bulk of her load—1300 tons—must be carried down by barges and taken in at Baker's bay. The Zamora, now taking wheat here, can only be half loaded at her Portland dock. Lighterage costs $1 25 per short ton, or 6 cents per cental. Thus the Palmyra must pay $1625 extra because the river is not properly dredged. The average of lighterage this season will be about ... cents per cental on all wheat that goes out of the Columbia river ... for this year, but the bad reputation which our ... gets ... [illegible]

COSTLY JUSTICE.

... An obscene quarrel among loafers and prostitutes is a mine which the courts fail not to work to the utmost; petty rows among utterly irresponsible and worthless characters are treated with a solicitous activity; arrests are made, witnesses summoned and juries impaneled; the whole gang who make a living out of the business swarm around to pile up the costs and the justice and constables on their part make fees which, to say the least, are rarely equaled on the capital invested. Besides, the expense they start does not stop with them. They set in motion a train of expenditure that accumulates like a rolling snowball. Cases are sent to the grand jury and often brought to trial on the most trivial charges, started because justices, constables and witnesses were eager to make fees. Large part of the cases begun are dismissed in the justices' courts, since, when the costs have been made the main object is gained, and of those cases held to answer other large part are ignored by the grand jury. But the costs have mounted to vast proportions.

For legitimate costs of justices' courts the people are willing to pay. But they are not willing to pay for trivial, farcical or unfounded proceedings started, worked up and carried through expressly to make bills of costs against the county. How this is to be handled so as to check the abuses practiced is not easy to decide. The constitution of the state expressly declares that the legislature shall pass no special or local law regulating the jurisdiction and duties of justices of the peace and constables. Still, a law to limit their number in cities or elsewhere would probably be valid. So probably would a statute to provide in certain cases fixed salaries, instead of the present system of fees, which is so grossly abused. Reduce the number of justices in this city, pay salaries to the reduced number and cut off the fees, and we shall have an end of practices which in effect are robberies carried on under the forms and through the perverted methods of law.

PORTLAND, AUGUST 24, 1881.
TO THE PUBLIC:
I take great pleasure in informing you that I have opened the premises No. 193 First street (lately occupied by Mooney & Valentine) with an Extensive and Assorted Stock of BOOTS and SHOES, which I have had manufactured under my personal supervision by the best Eastern and California manufacturers. I purchase my goods only from first hands, thereby saving intermediate profits, and which insures all goods to be manufactured as desired, at the same time being a material saving to purchasers and a warrantee that they are buying goods of a superior make
In entering this, our new field of enterprise, we are actuated by the three principles of a strictly legitimate business firm, it being our effort to remedy the evil effects of unreliable establishments and to guarantee the public
FAIR TREATMENT AND FULL VALUE
Of their investment As I am a practical manufacturer myself possessing a thorough knowledge of the business, there cannot be the remotest doubt regarding my ability to give satisfaction

... remedy in the case of an injury caused by a neglect to comply with the law concerning the navigation of steam vessels was confined to passengers, and that persons merely employed thereon were limited to the remedy in personam for such injuries.

Upon further argument and reflection I think the better conclusion is, that the provisions of §4493 of the R. S. concerning remedies are only cumulative and therefore do not take away or exclude any right to a proceeding in rem for an injury to an employee on a steam vessel, incurred while in the line of his employment, which was given or allowed by the general admiralty law. See Brown v. The D. S. Cage and Owners, 1 Wood, 401.

In addition, it appears that the offending vessel is made subject to a lien by the local law, for damages or injuries done to person or property by such boat or vessel. Or Laws, p. 656, §17, Sub. 4. But such lien is thereby postponed to the liens for wages, materials, wharfage and towage. Id p. 657, §18.

But the conclusion reached upon the first exception at the former hearing must still prevail, for as has been shown under Adm. Rule 15, the libellant cannot proceed in rem and in personam at the same time.

But she may amend her libel by striking out the vessel or the owner and proceed against the other accordingly.

Sidney Dell and W. Scott Beber, for the libelant.

D. P. Kennedy, for the owner and claimant.

THE NORTHWEST.

Western Oregon.

Diphtheria has again appeared in Sheridan, two of Charles Osborn's children being down with it.

Some 35 Indians from the Warm Springs reservation are picking hops in the Seely bar Brownsville.

School began at Lafayette on the 5th inst., J. E. Tuttle and the Misses Watson, late of Salem, in charge.

Martha J., wife of Nathan Westfall, of East Chehalem, died suddenly of dropsy of the heart on the 5th inst.

The prospect is that all of the warehouses at Harrisburg will be full though the rust has shriveled a great deal of wheat in that portion of Lane county.

The first term of the calendar year of McMinnville college began on Wednesday last, the 6th inst. Prof. Anderson, a gentleman just on from the east, is in charge.

Wheat is worth now in Scio 78 cents and oats 32 cents per bushel. The farmers in that locality are all pretty much done with their harvest. They have most of them sold their grain at 75 cents per bushel and are now fast hauling it off.

Mary E. Mager, a German woman, formerly the wife of Frederick Mager, who lives near Cedar Mills, Washington county, committed suicide on the 5th inst., by taking strychnine. She was divorced from her husband last June, and troubles growing out of family difficulties caused her to commit suicide.

The Pacific Bridge company's men finished the railroad bridge across the Calapooia on the 5th inst. and all hands left for the north Santiam, where they have several weeks' work. The depot is nearly finished and most of the track laid to the bridge, so they will soon be running trains south of Brownsville.

The mayor of Corvallis has called a mass meeting of the citizens of Benton county to consider measures for providing funds for continuing the harbor works at Yaquina bay during the winter. The meeting was called at the request of numerous citizens of Benton county, and the 17th of September was designated as the day for the same.

Work began in earnest on the Oregon Pacific railway on Monday, the 5th inst. A large number of the citizens of Corvallis went out to the place of commencement, about two miles distant from that city, to see the first dirt moved. Corvallis and vicinity has presented a lively appearance throughout the week, and the greatest enthusiasm prevails concerning the enterprise.

In answer to the question, what has been done at Yaquina with the $30,000 appropriated by congress, the engineer in charge replies: We have built two large scows and bought four others, giving us six large scows or lighters which could not be built at the bay for $9000 or $10,000. We have purchased half of a nearly new tugboat of 44 tons burden. We have built a commodious wharf on the south beach, and tramway over 2000 feet long, more than half of which is double track. We have a hoisting engine, and have built a derrick, storehouse, cars, etc. Besides this, we have built two large cribs, one of which we have used for our wharf; the other we will probably use in the jetty at some future day. We have opened a stone quarry and taken therefrom 2000 cubic yards of stone. We have bought and cut, together, about 600 cords of brush. We have built a portion of the first 300 feet of the jetty, and with the present appropriation will probably finish the inner 500 feet, which, of course, is not much out beyond low water mark, and is much the easiest part to construct. But you can see from this that we have purchased quite an expensive plant and outfit, and built a good many necessary auxiliary structures, and gained a good deal of valuable experience.

Washington Territory.

The contract for building a truss bridge across the Touchet has been awarded to T. J. Taylor & Son, the price being $1617.

Martin Gimel, while going to Puyallup on the train, on the afternoon of the 1st inst., dropped a pocketbook containing $100 in greenbacks and valuable papers. Conductor Lindsey found the property and returned it to the owner the next morning.

Elsten & Co., of New Tacoma, have a contract for overhauling the revenue cutter Oliver Wolcott. The repairs to the Wolcott will consist of a new smokestack and a thorough overhauling of her machinery. Work will be commenced at an early day. It must be completed in forty days.

I. W. Anderson of Tacoma, has a contract to deliver 1300 tons of Tacoma lime to the Oswego Iron Company. So far in 1881, 15,000 barrels of lime has been shipped from Mr. Anderson's works to Portland for building purposes, and the quantity will be increased to 18,000 barrels before the 1st of January next.

Ed. Mace, employed as a workman at the stone quarry below Wilkeson, was killed last Monday. A blast had been exploded and Mace, who was on the cliff above, fell down the precipice and received injuries which caused his death. Deceased leaves a wife and child, who reside at the lime kilns. The funeral took place at Puyallup on Tuesday.

Walla Walla Journal: We understand that there is daily laid in Blue mountain station over 200 tons of wheat, while only in the neighborhood of 75 tons of this is shipped, consequently mountains of wheat are awaiting transportation and a grain blockade is in progress. The railroad company should not be misled by the size of the place into thinking it of no importance as a shipping point, as there is no finer wheat growing country in the world than that of Umatilla county.

Eastern Oregon.

The O. R. & N. Co. have contracted with Samuel Williamson, of Union county, for 400 tons of hay, the company will winter 700 horses in that county the coming winter.

Malheur river bottom is said to be 1100 feet lower than Baker City. The Malheur country is said to be fast settling up by a good class of emigrants. A ditch, some 10 or 15 miles long is being constructed for irrigation purposes.

LITERARY NOTES.

Mr. Benson J. Lossing has completed for Harper & Brothers a "Popular Cyclopedia of United States History, from the Aboriginal Period to 1876." The work will be ready in November, in two volumes, with 1000 illustrations.

The success of Mr. Black's story, "A Beautiful Wretch," in the "Franklin Square Library," has induced the publishers to bring out an edition in cloth, uniform with the author's other novels.

A holiday edition of Fields' "Yesterday with Authors" will soon appear. It will contain steel portraits of ten of the writers mentioned in it. A biography of Mr. Fields, with complete accounts of his visits to England, and numerous unpublished letters to him by authors, will soon appear.

Five of Bayard Taylor's poems will make up the text of Houghton, Mifflin & Co.'s holiday book, which will bear the title of Home Ballads, and will be illustrated by Gibson, Hoven[illegible], Taylor and others. Closson, Andrew and Linton will do the engraving and the cover will be original in design.

Mr. John G. Saxe is remembered by a writer in the Cincinnati Commercial as saying: "My tree [illegible] knows but one language, but I venture to say that no man is more thoroughly acquainted with the English poetry of the day than he. And he is always endeavoring to extend his knowledge of the poets of other languages by means of translations. Few persons are capable of a juster criticism than he."

Mr. E. A. Freeman says the [illegible] ... America on September 27, and will deliver his first lecture in Boston on October [illegible]. Meanwhile he is engaged in passing through the press a companion volume to his "Historical and Architectural Sketches," chiefly Italian. This is the result of his recent visit to the heart of the Adriatic, and will consist of "Sketches from the Subject and Neighbor Lands of Venice."

THE BOSTON WOOL MARKET.

Boston, Sept. 9.—During the past week there has been a most active market, sales of all kinds aggregating 5,750,000 pounds, including large lines of Valparaiso carpet wools. The demand for the fleeces has been quite active, and prices are 1c per pound higher for this description, while for all grades there is a decidedly firmer feeling. Business in washed fleeces has been upwards of one million pounds, including considerable Ohio and Pennsylvania, XX and [illegible]; XXX [illegible]; XXXX and XX fleeces, [illegible], with but small percentage of stock available of these figures as most of the best and desirable lots of XX are held at 45c. Michigan fleeces have been sold quite freely at 39@41c, and largely at 40c, but is now very firmly held at 41c. In unwashed fleeces sales have been very large, some 155,000 pounds including considerable of fine western, 25@32c; medium 34@36c; low and coarse [illegible]; choice medium 34@35c. Texas, Territory and Missouri wools are largely embraced in these transactions. California wool has moved slowly, but is held firm, best grades northern spring selling as high as 35c. Combing and delaine fleeces are in demand at 46c; 48c for fine delaine, 46c for medium and combing, 40@45c for coarse combing, and 25@32c for unwashed. Pulled wools have been quite active, 30@50c for common; supers 38@43c good 44@48, choice. Sales of carpet wool include 1,530,000 pounds of Valparaiso. 172,000 pounds of Australian wool has been sold at 41@43c, sales being 482,000 pounds. The market at the close was very firm for all kinds.

Review of Charters.

San Francisco, Sept. 9.—The Commercial News reviewing the freight market says: The feature of the week has been a large increase in tonnage reported bound here, most of the additions being from Australia. A few of the ships due have arrived, chiefly under charter. These disengaged have since arrival obtained high rates, the highest paid since the rise in freights commenced. At this writing there are no disengaged ships in port suitable for wheat, but one in ballast is on the way from Wilmington, and one is discharging at San Diego. The market for ready spot ships is strong and high rates could be obtained were vessels here to take them. Owners of tonnage seem to look upon the present state of affairs as permanent, and for next arrival hold ships at full spot rates. This has checked business, as exporters do not care to operate at such disadvantage. There is a constructive tendency developing and there is much less anxiety to charter for late arrival than was exhibited a few weeks since. If there are timely rains this fall it will materially assist freights in maintaining their position but without them and the large fleet coming this way wheat would doubtless be placed in stronger position than at present.

such as SPERMATORRHŒA, or SEMINAL WEAKNESS, or LOSS OF PERFECT VITALITY. Nearly two-thirds of all the Chronic Diseases spring, either directly or indirectly, from some derangement of the sexual system, and yet this subject is neglected by the majority of the Medical Profession.

I know that persons who are unfortunate enough to be afflicted by any form of sexual disease have a delicacy in calling upon the proper physician in time, from a sense of modesty and sometimes from ignorance, and permit these diseases to exist until their constitutions become corrupted, their organizations broken down and the hope of future happiness blighted, until death becomes a welcome messenger to carry them out of their miserable existence.

DR. SPINNEY,

No. 11 Kearny street, S. F.

Treats all Chronic and Special Diseases.

YOUNG MEN

WHO MAY BE SUFFERING FROM THE effects of youthful follies or indiscretion will do well to avail themselves of this [illegible] ever laid at the altar of suffering humanity. DR. SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of Seminal Weakness or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure.

MIDDLE-AGED MEN.

There are many at the age of thirty to sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often be found, and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milkish hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.

Office Hours—10 to 4 and 6 to 8. Sundays from 10 to 11 A. M. Consultation free. Thorough examination and advice $5.

Call or address DR. SPINNEY & CO., No. 11 Kearny street, San Francisco.

P. S. For private diseases of short standing a full course of medicines sufficient for a cure, with all instructions, will be sent to any address [illegible]
